STRATUM-N BATHROOM FURNITURE

There is a furniture unit that will enable you to listen to your favourite music while you get ready to go out, and lights up when you search for something inside it. Discover the new Stratum-N furniture unit with Bluetooth® speakers, and internal lighting.

Comfort

Who would imagine that a furniture unit could be one of the elements with more comfort in the bathroom? Or rather, who would think that a furniture unit could include Bluetooth® speakers, and internal lighting? If you see your bathroom as a space of comfort, Stratum-N makes it easy for you.*

(* Stratum-N has the IP44 protection level, according to the existing regulations, which ensures that all furniture elements are protected against water.

Order

If you are not a tidy person, you will become one, and if you are already tidy then you will be happy to find out that the drawers of the Stratum-N furniture unit include internal compartments that will allow you to have all your toiletries perfectly stored. But that is not all. In order to have your most valuable objects under control you also have a concealed drawer to store them safely.

Storage

There will be no further space problems. With the high capacity drawers of the Stratum-N furniture unit, now there is room to store everything. As they can be pulled out completely, their interior can be fully visible so that you may find anything you may need easily.

The Bluetooth® brand and logo are registered trademarks of Bluetooth SIG, Inc. in use of the said trademarks by Roca Sanitario S.A. is under license.
